Re: Historical Materials of Charles Bronson

Dear Mr. Young:

Thank you for taking time to talk with me last week about your family's decisions regarding the historical materials of Charles Bronson. This letter will confirm that you reviewed with your family the sample deed of gift that I sent to you that would have effected a donation of the historical materials of Charles Bronson from your family to the National Archives. You stated that your family is not prepared to donate any of their property rights in the historical materials, primarily due to the pending litigation concerning improper use of the materials.

As I mentioned last week, the Review Board remains interested in any donation your family may wish to make. I hope that you will keep us updated on the status of the litigation and that you will feel free to call with any questions you may have.

Thank you again for your time.

Sincerely,

Re: Deed of Gift for the Historical Materials of Charles Bronson

Dear Mr. Young:

Enclosed please find a draft Deed of Gift for the materials your family will be donating to the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection at the National Archives. As you will see when you review the draft, I have not yet included the language specifically referencing your gift. I understand that your family would like to place certain restrictions on the gift. Once you and your family review this draft, please give me a call so that we can discuss which paragraphs in the draft you would like to alter.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Laura Denk", is written over a horizontal line.

Laura Denk, Esq.

The Archivist, or his or her designee, shall determine at the time of each request whether reproductions are to be provided free of charge or, in the alternative, for a fee set in accordance with the provisions of chapter 21 of title 44, United States Code.

9. (a) It is the Donors' wish that the Donated Materials be made available for use by the public as soon after and to the fullest extent possible following their inclusion in the JFK Collection. For this reason, the Donors place no restrictions on the use of the Donated Materials.
- (b) The Archivist may, subject only to restrictions placed upon him by law or regulation, provide for the preservation, arrangement, repair and rehabilitation, duplication and reproduction, description, exhibition, display, and servicing of the Donated Materials as may be needful or appropriate.
